The American Rescue Plan (ARP) funding has allowed Martin County to set aside funds for emergency rental assistance for qualified Martin County residents. Funds may be used for up to four (4) months of past rent and/or two (2) months of future rent for households that meet certain income qualifications and are experiencing a financial hardship during or because of the COVID-19 pandemic.

Assistance is contingent on funding availability, as funding is limited.

Eligibility Requirements (proof required)

- Must be a resident of Martin County
- Current, valid lease agreement in the applicant's name
- Must have experienced a reduction in income or increase in expenses during the COVID-19 pandemic
- Household must meet income limits
- Must not have previously received rental assistance for the months requested

Members In Household	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8
Annual Income Limit*	$40,050	$45,800	$51,500	$57,200	$61,800	$66,400	$70,950	$75,550

Annual Income Limit based on 80% of HUD Area Median Income guideline.*
